Resilience Through Art — Echoes of Apartheid

Join us for an inspiring art show "Resilience Through Art: Echoes of Apartheid" hosted by Kappstone Media in Lanham, Maryland on Tuesday, February 27, 2024 at 6:00 PM. The exhibition will feature a diverse range of talented artists, including Winston Saoli and Hargreaves Ntukwana, who have utilized their creativity to shed light on the struggles and triumphs of individuals who have faced oppression.

This event promises to be both inspiring and impactful as it aims to highlight the transformative power of art in overcoming adversity. In addition to the thought-provoking art, there will be complimentary wine and hors d'oeuvres served, providing an opportunity for networking and conversation.

A portion of the proceeds from the event will go to support the Amara Legal Center. To secure your spot at this inspiring event, please RSVP using the following link: Eventbrite Tickets.

We're Hiring!

Part-Time Staff Attorney

Amara is seeking a part-time attorney with a minimum of 1 - 3 years of litigation experience to provide trauma-informed legal services in DC. Practice areas include family law, civil protection orders, name and gender marker changes, criminal record relief, and victim witness advocacy.

Amara Legal Center Takes Gold at the Anthem Awards

We are proud to have been recognized as a 2024 Gold Anthem Award Winner within the Humanitarian Action & Services Nonprofit Leader of the Year Category! The Anthem Awards, considered the largest and most comprehensive social impact award, celebrates organizations across various sectors for their outstanding contributions. We are deeply humbled by this recognition, which highlights our commitment to pioneering and innovative community service.

At Amara, our mission is to serve survivors of sex trafficking and sex workers, advocating for their rights and increasing access to justice. We are immensely grateful to Anthem for acknowledging the importance of this work.
