March 25 — Quarterly Partner Meeting

Calling all community partners and organizations!

We're thrilled to extend an invitation to our upcoming partner network meeting on Monday, March 25, 2024 at 1 p.m. Join us as we gather to explore opportunities for collaboration to serve our community.

If you are interested in attending and partnering with Amara, contact our Program Coordinator Keith Pollard at keith.pollard@amaralegal.org.

March 27 — Human Trafficking 101 for Medical Professionals

Are you a nurse, doctor, or other medical provider?

Join Amara Legal Center for a free, virtual Human Trafficking 101 training for medical providers on Wednesday, March 27, 2024, at 1 p.m. During this training, you will learn how to recognize the signs of trafficking when caring for patients and how to provide support to survivors.

Donate to Pathways to Justice: Amara Legal Center

Based in the heart of Washington, D.C., we provide free, trauma-informed legal services to survivors of sex trafficking and individuals engaged in commercial sex. Our work is guided by a deep commitment to supporting our clients in leading self-determined lives and advocating for their rights both inside and outside the courtroom.

However, we can't embark on this mission alone. Your support is indispensable. Your donation directly fuels our program, enabling us to provide free legal services to our clients every day. Please consider donating to our Pathways to Justice campaign today. Your contribution, no matter how big or small, makes a meaningful impact.

Thank you to Kappstone Media and Mosaic Perspectives Gallery

A heartfelt thank you to everyone who joined us for "Resilience Through Art" on February 27th! It was an incredible event, and we're truly grateful for the support of Kappstone Media and Mosaic Perspective Galleries, our gracious hosts. Special thanks to radio personality Nori-Nori from WPGC 95.5 for the insightful interview with Amara's Executive Director as we work together to raise awareness of human trafficking in our community.
